BALD?

It's O.K. to SUCK.
Especially when you have a nozzle
and interchangeable hoses.

But it's not O.K. when a horse's life is on the line.
Just to give up? Sometimes that would be nice.

One time, I got locked
in a hotel room.
The bolt got stuck
and I was alone.

There I was, living
off the mini-bar and watching basic cable for 2 and 3/3 days. My family thought I had died. The front desk thought I was some teenager prank calling them.

When the fireman broke down*, I leaped into the hallway and hugged him.
